Numb. 7573.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday February 4 to Tuesday February 7. 1737.

Vienna, February 1, N. S.

COUNT Coloredo set out on the 28th past for Manheim, where he is to be before the 10th Instant, in order to deliver to the Elector a Memorial about Bergue and Juliers, and afterwards he is to go to several other Courts of the Empire. M. Zech, the Saxon Envoy, is to leave this Court this Spring, and M. Erff, who was formerly in his Britannick Majesty's Service as Elector, and who has actually been made Councellor of State to the King of Poland, will succeed Baron Zech. M. de Lenthe, that King's Electoral Minister, arrived here on Wednesday last, and he is now busy in taking his Audiences, and making his first Visits of Ceremony to all the Ministers.

Dresden, Feb. 5, N. S. M. Fuenclara, who is to come hither with the Character of Ambassadour and Plenipotentiary both from Spain and Naples, has sent a Messenger to this Court from Vienna, desiring Passports from this Place, and he writes that he designs to set out from Vienna the 15th Instant, and has sent Don Carlos's Picture for the Princess Maria Amelia. The King has given Orders to the Council of War to take an exact Account of the Number of his Forces, which, it is supposed, is in order to find Means in what Manner they may recruit their Troops in Hungary, though it is not said that this Court is as yet come to any Agreement with the Imperial Court thereupon.

Hague, Feb. 14, N. S. There have been of late in Guelderland some Disorders between some of the Subjects of that Province, and those of the King of Prussia, a certain Number of the first having entred the Territory of that King, and violently taken away the Goods adjudged for Debts, belonging to a private Man, who had retired thither with those Goods from Guelderland: Which Proceeding will certainly occasion some Complaints from the King of Prussia, and is generally disapproved here. The States of Holland continue their Assembly upon their Domestick Affairs, but will probably separate To Morrow. The States General have issued out a Placart, appointing the 5th of March to be a Day of Fasting and Humiliation throughout the Seven Provinces.

Whitehall, January 31, 1737-8,

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that a Merchant Ship called the Britannia, was, between the 23d and 24th Days of December last past, stranded at Malcombe in the Port of Plymouth and County of Devon, and plundered and robbed of divers Goods and Effects: and that a threatening Letter has been lately thrown into the Yard of John Pollexfen, Esq; at Mothecombe, in the said County, which said John Pollexfen has been aiding and assisting in procuring Satisfaction to the Owners of the said Ship and Goods, and which said Letter is supposed to have been contrived and written by one or more of the Persons concerned in the said Robbery and Plunder: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing or sending the said threatening Letter, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the Criminals who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, in writing, sending, or leaving the said incendiary Letter, so as he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And, as a further Encouragement, Henry March, dwelling in St. Augustine Fryars, in the City of London, Merchant, does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to the Person or Persons who shall discover one or more of his Accomplices in writing and sending the said threatening Letter, to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said Criminals.

Henry March.

Whitehall, Feb. 4, 1737-8.

Whereas on the First Day of this Instant February, several scandalous, seditious, and treasonable Papers, were found pasted up in different Places in the Town of Leicester: His Majesty is pleased, for the better Discovery of the Authors and Dispersers of the said wicked and treasonable Papers, or any Persons concerned therein, to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, plices, ſo as he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a further Encouragement, His Majeſty is pleaſed to promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Perſon that ſhall make ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of any one of the Offenders; or in Caſe there ſhall be more than one Perſon diſcovered and convicted, His Majeſty is pleaſed to promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds for every one of the ſaid Criminals, to be paid upon the Conviction of them, or any of them.
